CLASIFICACIÓN:

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is dense and covers most of the page, with some lines appearing to be crossed out or heavily corrected. The script is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century.

Handwritten text at the top of the right page, possibly a header or a specific clause of the document. It is written in the same cursive script as the left page.

Four distinct signatures or initials in cursive script, arranged horizontally. They appear to be official or personal endorsements of the document.

A line of handwritten text, possibly a date or a reference to a specific event or location, written in cursive script.

Two smaller signatures or initials, positioned below the main line of text on the right page.

Several decorative flourishes or symbols, including a large, stylized initial 'U' and other intricate scribbles, possibly serving as a seal or a decorative element.
