SEVENTH STREET, FLOWER AND FIGUEROA

LOS ANGELES 17

Dear Victor;

I hope this note finds you well and still in the country. My last letter was returned as I had apparently put a wrong address on the envelope so I'm sending this to the school. How is your family effected by this recent turmoil? Not too badly I hope!

Things are much the same here I'm still doing windows in this damn store and attending night classes at City College rather than Chaucer's as I can better afford it.

The moving bug must have bit me early in life as I am still living a sort of transient life moving every month or two around this city of (unhappy angels) who can't see for the fog. I am now not far from Dick Fisher's old place on West Knoll Dr. the address is 921 Westbourne Dr. W. Hollywood 46. If you should find time to write before I move or something. I rather like my new place as it's close enough to Farmers Market where I can get all the Bread and cheese ~~unavailable~~ ^{unavailable} in any other part of the city and I can ride to work with my boy in the morning. I'm going to Immaculate Heart College tonight as Sister Caritta has a sale of student serigraphs. which are often times good and quite reasonable.
